

We're not your ordinary travel company. We care about local businesses, environmental issues, and huge advocates for sustainable tourism. We donate to charities and communities.

1

who are we

Company:

We're an independent online travel company made up of seasoned globetrotters with corporate backgrounds. We hail from sunny Los Angeles, California and spend our time traveling, curating, and connecting with other travelers.

Paid Time Off +

Corporate Americans do not take enough vacations, that's where we come in.

Social Media +

We select destinations and experiences that cater to our customers' Instagram game.

Experiences +

We experience hotels and tours first-hand before recommending them to our customers.

Food + Drink +

We love culture: food + drink is at the top of our list.

Slow Travel +

We like to focus on one destination at a time, at a reasonable pace.

Authenticity +

Keepin' it real has always been our jam. We prefer using our own lifestyle photos and experiences.

2

stress-free travel

We inspire and encourage employees to travel better.

From team building events to incentive trips, we design ideal itineraries and experiences to fit every budget. Sit back and relax.

3

our customers

the niche: corporate travel

+

Majority of our customers are corporate types from Silicon Valley, Austin, Los Angeles area (Silicon Beach), Boston, and New York City. We work with corporations such as Facebook, Apple, and Google. Our founder makes onsite visits to discuss travel and connect with the employees.

17.2 average vacation days taken in 2017 by Americans

705 million wasted vacation days in 2018 for American employees

52% American employees with unused vacation

4

certified + recognized

We are a certified agency and experts in Norway, Iceland, New Orleans, San Diego, Italy, etc.

We are proud members of 1% for the Planet, Adventure Trade Travel Association, and American Society of Travel Advisors.

For more details and information, please contact us at info@nomoontravel.com or visit our website at nomoontravel.com